FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rogers, Sheffield & Campbell Partners with Panish Shea & Boyle on Montecito Mudslide Litigation

Rogers, Sheffield & Campbell has partnered with the Los Angeles law firm, Panish Shea & Boyle, a highly respected personal injury and mass tort powerhouse, boasting successful Plaintiff verdicts totaling in the billions of dollars. The firms intend to jointly pursue justice and damages for victims of the Montecito Mudslides.

For those interested in learning more or initiating a claim against the parties responsible for the recent tragedies, contact Travis C. Logue or Jason W. Wansor.

The firms will be holding a free informational workshop for those affected by the Montecito Mudslides.

January 30, 2018, 6:30-8:30 PM
Hyatt Centric Santa Barbara
1111 E. Cabrillo Blvd
Santa Barbara, CA 93103

David Grokenberger, attorney for Rogers, Sheffield & Campbell, and his family are longtime residents of Montecito. They were lucky to escape the total destruction of their home at 321 Hot Springs Road on January 8. He will share his first-hand experience of the event and in dealing with his insurance carrier, State Farm, who recently confirmed coverage for the loss. According to Mr. Grokenberger, "My goal is to initiate a dialogue that is comfortable and without commitment so that informed decisions can be made." Mr. Grokenberger is available for interviews with media outlets.

Additional experts will be present at the event to address other issues:

- Potential claims against Southern California Edison and/or other third parties responsible for the Thomas Fire
- Evacuation and Displacement
- FEMA – applications for disaster assistance
- Insurance issues – how and when to make a claim
- What to do if you are uninsured or underinsured
- What to do about your mortgage
- How to remediate environmental hazards
- How to address your property tax
