

Wendy L. Miele Senior Associate Attorney

Wendy Miele is an experienced Senior Associate Attorney with a track record of litigation success in the areas of financial institution defense, real estate and environmental litigation, "bad faith" lawsuits, habitability claims, property loss recovery actions, construction and product liability.

Prior to joining Rogers, Sheffield & Campbell, Ms. Miele had a long track record of litigation and litigation support success.

As an award-winning Senior Associate Attorney for Severson & Werson, a U.S. News-ranked firm in the area of banking/finance litigation, Ms. Miele defended financial institutions and mortgage servicers in complex business disputes by alleged wrongful foreclosures, false credit reporting, mortgage fraud, allege breach of purchase & sale contracts, and more. She prevailed on hundreds of dispositive motions in federal and state court.

While serving as a Senior Associate Attorney with Ropers, Majeski, Kohn & Bentley, Ms. Miele, prosecuted asset recovery actions and defended insurance brokers in FINRA arbitrations rating to annuities and alleged broker misconduct. She also advised clients in third party liability and first party property matters as she wrote hundreds of coverage evaluations and initial case evaluations.

With Clausen Miller, P.C., Ms. Miele prosecuted recovery actions for multi-million-dollar property losses from fires, floods, explosions and chemicals. As an Associate Attorney for Dale, Braden & Hinchcliffe, Ms. Miele was awarded defense verdicts in the private binding arbitration and appeal of an alleged advertising injury claim brought by Unocal involving its patent for reformulated gasoline.

Ms. Miele earned her J.D. from the Wake Forest School of Law University of Pepperdine School of Law and earned her B.A. from Duke University. She is a member of the State Bar of California.